

ATTN Annual Conference 2023

May 26th & May 27th

Spreading the Light of Therapeutic Touch®

Friday

Spreading the light of TT through community based courses

It is the aspiration of all TTers that the light of TT be spread by being used in every home throughout the world.

This has certainly been the written vision of the Atlantic Therapeutic Touch Network since inception. The TT Community Courses Project is just the tool to help us commit to this goal and to fulfill this vision.

Saturday

Spreading the light of TT throughout the dying process

Presenter: David Maginley

There is no greater honour in TT than holding the energetic space of the dying. Here we engage the life force in its most sublime and nuanced wisdom.

Our ability to enter that space is determined, as in all treatments, by centering, grounding, and being fully open. We are on the edge of a transformation into wonder.

Explore with Rev. David Maginley the process of awakening at the end of life; what we call dying. For both the practitioner and receiver, this involves the deconstruction of the ego - setting aside the identity we think we have so as to open to the reality of what we are. All spiritual practice is ultimately for this purpose - to know ourselves as we truly are.

Our compassionate presence facilitates their release of the imagined self and the activation of enlightenment. This is the core self that has been suppressed through life, now released into awareness at its end. We will use the practice of Direct Experience to support our centered presence as conduits for the energetic wisdom of Spirit to flow.
