Facilitators

Alison Cooke (TTNO)

Alison has been practicing and teaching Therapeutic Touch® for more than 25 years, both locally and on Zoom. She is the co-author, along with Crystal Hawk, of Be Your Own Healer: Self-Care with Therapeutic Touch. For the past 29 years she has provided Therapeutic Touch at the Stirling Manor long term care facility, and as a pastoral care worker for her church. Her passion is to bring Therapeutic Touch to the awareness of as many people as she can.

Paula Neilson (TTNO)

Highlighting Self-Care: Creating Awareness of Self-Care within the TT Curriculum

Self-care is an integral part of our Therapeutic Touch practice. What have we done to highlight it and how can we create a greater awareness of self-care as we teach the TT curriculum? The goal is for each of our students to take away simple tools for self-care while also learning the skills to help and support others energetically. Join us as we all share how we have integrated self-care within the TT curriculum

Paula Neilson has been active in Therapeutic Touch® for more than twenty years and is a Recognized Teacher with the Therapeutic Touch International Association and the Therapeutic Touch Network of Ontario. She has been teaching TT for Self-Care for more than 10 years within the community and for the past 7 years on a weekly basis. She is always looking for ways to integrate self-care when teaching Foundations and the Transpersonal Nature of TT.
